Sub: Announcement of IIRS Distance Learning Program Annual Course Calendar 2024.

Dear Sir/ Madam,

Indian Institute of Remote Sensing (IIRS), unit of Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO), Department of Space, Government of India has started its Distance Learning Program in the year 2007. The distance learning program was started with the basic objective of creating awareness among students and working professionals on Remote Sensing technology and its applications.

The institute has so far conducted 196 Satellite and Internet based Outreach Programmes, benefitting more than 7,43,046 participants from 3,477 Indian Universities/ Institutions/User Departments/user Department/ Ministries in India and participants from 148 countries. IIRS delivers these online courses through its indigenous developed online learning platform E-CLASS which is an effort to achieve self-reliance in advance technologies in education under Atmanirbhar Bharat mission of Government of India.

To continue our efforts, I am happy to announce IIRS Annual Course Calendar-2024 for Distance Learning program. For the year 2024, a total of 22 online courses, 02 International Massive Open Online Courses (MOOC) and 07 full-day online workshops of varying duration have been planned. The target participants includes students, teachers and working professionals engaged in Geospatial technology and its applications.

It is a unique opportunity for participants to learn directly from their place and receive certificate from IIRS, ISRO for their career enhancement without any course fee. You are requested to please circulate this announcement letter and course brochure to the possible beneficiaries.
